

The background image is a vertical rectangle with rounded corners, framed by a dark border. It depicts a woman with long, wavy brown hair, seen from behind, wearing a light blue, short-sleeved, knee-length dress. She is standing in a dense forest with tall, thin trees. Sunlight filters through the canopy, creating a warm, golden glow. At the top center of the frame, there is a bright, multi-pointed star-like light source, possibly a sun or a magical light, which illuminates the scene. The overall mood is serene and hopeful.
